Parents who wish to speak to an instructor or the owner of the studio must make an appointment first through email. Please do not contact instructors or the owner about official studio business through their personal cell numbers, personal email addresses or social media accounts.

You are more than welcome to enjoy our waiting room while you are waiting for your dancer, and we are so happy to facilitate more people to do this! Please see below for our waiting room rules that will be enforced by our Staff members.

- All hallways and walkways are to be CLEAR of toys, food, drinks or even people sitting down. It is a fire hazard and a tripping hazard to have the hallways cluttered.
- Make sure no younger children are unattended. If your dancer is younger and waiting in between classes, they must wait in the main waiting room where our office staff can keep an eye on them.
- NO running in the hallways or the waiting room.
- If toys or activities are brought for your other children, make sure they are in a condensed area and not spread out on the floor.
- Clean up any crumbs or trash from around the area you were occupying before leaving the studio.

Our studio is and has been one of a peaceful environment and it is our desire to protect that environment as we continue to grow.

In the classroom, students must pay attention and maintain a quiet, easy to learn environment. No excessive talking. Please be prompt and on time to each class, if a student is more than 10 minutes late to class, they will only be able to observe the class (after a warning) and not participate unless the parent has previously communicated a late arrival.

If disciplinary action is required, outlined below is our discipline protocol:

- The instructor will talk to their student about the behavior after class with gentle reminders of our rules
- The instructor will notify the owner of the studio
- The parent/guardian will be contacted about the child's behavior, to be made aware of the situation
- If the student's behavior continues or even worsens, then a meeting may be called with the instructor, owner, and parents to figure out a solution
- If no solution can be found, the student may need to be dismissed for the remainder of the dance season

We do not tolerate a competitive/judgmental atmosphere among our dancers at Bloom Dance Studio. Bloom is a safe place for every student to grow and learn to become the unique dancer and artist that they are individually. We will challenge and motivate our dancers to be the best they can be. Whether you choose the Auto-Pay option or to pay manually everyone must place a card on file in your family account at the time of registration. All checks can be made out to Bloom Dance Studio. Please include your students name on the memo of the check.

Each tuition payment is based on an average 4-week month. You will not be charged for a 5th week in a month and there is no deduction for a 3-week dance period in a month. The only time tuition will be prorated is if a dancer has registered in the middle of the month and is taking 2 classes or less that first month. Monthly tuition amounts will remain the same regardless of attendance, school closures or holidays. If we must close due to the weather, we will always do our best to schedule a makeup class later.

THERE WILL BE NO REFUNDS AT ANY POINT!

If you have paid for a month of tuition and your dancer is unable to participate in classes due to an injury, sickness, or loss of interest no refund will be given. If a dancer has an injury- we encourage that dancer to observe classes, take notes and continue to learn from the teaching given during classes.
